STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER CONTINUING PRELIMINARY
HEARING AND EXTENDING TIME IN WHICH TO INDICT FROM DECEMBER 2, 2010 UNTIL JANUARY
12, 2011

The defendant came before this Court on October 13, 2010, for an initial appearance on a criminal complaint. Attorney Steve Teich represented the defendant and Assistant United States Attorney Kathryn R. Haun represented the United States. The parties put the matter over until October 21, 2010 for a detention hearing. On October 21, 2010, the parties appeared, the defendant waived the detention hearing and the parties agreed to put the matter over for a preliminary hearing until December 2, 2010 before Judge Chen. At that time, the parties also requested an exclusion of time in which to hold the preliminary hearing until December 2, 2010, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 5.1. Judge Spero so ordered time excluded until December 2, 2010.

CR 10-70786-BZ
Proposed Order Extending Time

1 The parties hereby jointly request that the Court now continue the preliminary hearing
2 currently set for December 2, 2010 until January 12, 2011. The parties are exploring a pre-
3 indictment resolution and require the additional time in which to negotiate the matter and for 4 defense counsel to fully review the discovery provided to him with his client. In addition, the 5 parties require the additional time in which to meet and confer further about the case.

6 Taking into account the public interest in the prompt disposition of criminal cases, and 7 good cause having been shown for the reasons stated above, and with the consent of the 8 defendant, the Court hereby extends the time limits under Fed. Rule of Crim. Pro. as follows: the 9 preliminary hearing currently set for December 2, 2010 is continued until January 12, 2011 and 10 the time limit for a preliminary hearing is hereby extended until January 12, 2011.
